CEREMONIES

BIG WEDDING STYLE

Take the stress out of choosing an uncle or friend to guide your reception and leave it to the professional. I will guide your evening through the housekeeping of toilets, to the alternate drop of dinner and won't miss announcing the cutting of the cake because I was too busy dancing.

INCLUSIONS:

- Face to Face meet and greet. Let's meet up and start the process of weaving together your reception script and run sheet. This can also be our meeting to commence your ceremony preparation. Coffee is on me!

- Personalised Reception Script and Run Sheet. You will be presented with a personalised script written specifically for you and your partner. Jokes, funny family stories or just announce the important parts - it's up to you. I will provide you with a draft copy to edit and make any changes you want. I will be onsite from the beginning of your reception until the last announcement (package includes up to [5] five hours).

- Professional PA System. There is nothing worse than guests not being able to hear what's going on. Your guests will definitely be able to hear everything because my PA is a professional system, and will be loud enough for everyone to hear.

- Clothing. I will dress to match the theme or look and feel of your big day, to make sure your photographs are visually beautiful with no awkward MC wrecking the vibe. If you are planning a themed wedding, let me know because I love to dress up...

- Contact. I will provide you with unlimited email contact, one face to face meeting and as many phone calls as required to get your day planned perfectly.

- Travel. All travel for our face to face meeting, rehearsal and wedding ceremony is included in this package within Newcastle and The Hunter Valley (outside this area will be quoted separately).

PRICE:

Mid-Week Wedding - Starting from $500.00AUD

Friday, Saturday and Sunday Wedding - Starting from $800.00AUD in Newcastle or The Hunter Valley (outside this area will be quoted separately).

SPECIAL EVENT

No matter the event, I know how to deliver the perfect amount of entertainment and professionalism for every occasion from Corporate Events and Gala Balls to Bar Mitzvahs and Presentation Nights. Sit back and relax knowing your event is being run by a professional.

INCLUSIONS:

- Face to Face meet and greet. Let's meet up and start the process of weaving together your run sheet. Coffee is on me!

- Run Sheet. You will be presented with a script and run sheet that includes all of the important elements of your event. I can make suggestions as to how to plan the day out to get the best out of your guests attention. I will provide you with a draft copy to edit and make any changes you want. I will be onsite from the beginning of your event until the last announcement (package includes up to [5] five hours).

- Professional PA System. There is nothing worse than guests not being able to hear what's going on. Your guests will definitely be able to hear everything because my PA is a professional system, and will be loud enough for everyone to hear.

- Clothing. I will dress professionally to ensure that your event is well received.

- Contact. I will provide you with unlimited email contact, one face to face meeting and as many phone calls as required to get your event planned perfectly.
